Going on vacation

Mia: My sister and I are going to Greece this coming July.

Josh: That sounds great!

Mia: We will travel between the islands. There are plenty of ferries to take.

Josh: How long is your vacation?

Mia : Two months. After Greece, we will fly to London.

Josh: Nice!

Going to the supermarket

Chris: I'm going to the supermarket. I need to buy a few things. Do you want to come with?

Andy: Yes. Are we taking the bus?

Chris: No, let's go with my e-bike. It's quicker and I only want to buy a few things.

Andy: That's perfect. I only need to buy milk.

Going up the mountain

Mary: Are you coming with us tomorrow? We would like to visit Table Mountain.

Matt: Of course! Are you taking the cable car?

Mary: Yes, the view is really beautiful from the top of the mountain. We plan to eat lunch there.

Matt: Okay. What time shall I meet you?

Mary: I think round about half past eight. Then we can drive to the cable car station and hope the line will not be too long.

Matt: See you then!

Where do you come from?

Noel: Where are you going for your next vacation?

Thomas: I'm going home. I haven't seen my parents for ages.

Noel: Where exactly do you live?

Thomas: My parents are in Porto, Portugal. I was born and bred there. I can't wait to return for a few weeks.

Noel: Wow! I envy you. It sounds like a beautiful place.

Thomas: It is!
