

FILL THE GAPS

Numbers, Months, Weeks, Days & Dates

Choose a number/word from the word bank to complete the sentences.

934-233-111
7th
last 10:20

4,000,000
31
2nd
Thursday

January, 25th leap year first midnight

A conversation between two friends

Dean: How many people are in your city?

Ryan: I am not sure, but I think it is _____.

Dean: Mhmm, that's quite a lot.

Ryan: Do you know how many are in your country?

Dean: I have no idea!

Ryan: Dean, what is your telephone number? I'm going to find out how many and I'll phone you with the answer.

Dean: Cool, my number is _____.

In the classroom

Teacher: Richard, when is your birthday?

Richard: It's _____.

Teacher: Thank you. I would like you to come for your test on _____ at _____.

Richard: Okay. Sir, am I the _____ student to do the test?

Teacher: No, you are the _____.

Two students in their dormitory

Marion: Nina, how many students are in your class?

Nina: _____.

Marion: I am a little bit confused; how many days does February have this year?

Nina: It's a _____, so there are only 28 days!

Marion : Cool!

Nina: Tonight I have so much to study. I won't get into bed before _____!

Marion: You always work so hard. Were you 1st in your class last year?

Nina: No, unfortunately. I was _____.

Marion: That is still very good. When do you have to do your interview for the Student Council?

Nina: On the _____ of this month.

Marion: Well, best of luck! I know you'll make it!

Nina: Thank you so much.

Teacher's Key

A conversation between two friends

Dean: How many people are in your city?

Ryan: I am not sure, but I think it is 4,000,000.

Dean: Mhmm, that's quite a lot.

Ryan: Do you know how many are in your country?

Dean: I have no idea!

Ryan: Dean, what is your telephone number? I'm going to find out how many and I'll phone you with the answer.

Dean: Cool, my number is 934-233-111.

In the classroom

Teacher: Richard, when is your birthday?

Richard: It's January, 25th.

Teacher: Thank you. I would like you to come for your test on Thursday at 10:20.

Richard: Okay. Sir, am I the first student to do the test?

Teacher: No, you are the last!

Teacher's Key

Two students in their dormitory

Marion: Nina, how many students are in your class?

Nina: 31.

Marion: I am a little bit confused; how many days does February have this year?

Nina: It's a leap year, so there are only 28 days!

Marion : Cool!

Nina: Tonight I have so much to study. I won't get into bed before midnight!

Marion: You always work so hard. Were you 1st in your class last year?

Nina: No, unfortunately. I was 2nd.

Marion: That is still very good. When do you have to do your interview for the Student Council?

Nina: On the 7th of this month.

Marion: Well, best of luck! I know you'll make it!

Nina: Thank you so much.

