

©2015 Christina Swart

Romance

Essential words to know, which your teacher will explain to you.

To love someone is a privilege. A mate is gentle to our soul.

fall in love	ex	married	divorce
break up	boy/girlfriend	go steady	propose fiancé/fiancée	wife/husband	honeymoon	engaged

The verb changes to the past tense when we refer to the past, i.e. fall in love changes to fell in love. We say go steady, get engaged, get married and the verb changes to the past i.e. went steady, got engaged, got married, got divorced.

1. Mary and Steve met at college and they fell in love.
2. They went steady for a few years and then he proposed and they got engaged on her 21st birthday.
3. They got married after two years and have two children.
4. Desiree and Pete also got married but their marriage did not last long. They got divorced after one year.
5. Adrian and Keira are boyfriend and girlfriend. They know each other since childhood but only fell in love after college.
6. My ex is a very good father to our children. Unfortunately, he was a lousy husband!
7. We went to Mauritius for our honeymoon. It was awesome!

