On-campus - a discussion between two students

- A: Chris, I am so excited to be a freshman!
- B: Me too, Danny. In which dormitory are you?
- A: In No 7. The building is just east of our classroom.
- B: Oh, me too. We need to register for our course tomorrow.
- A: Yes, then we will receive our student cards and student numbers. I believe Professor Hamilton is our English lecturer.
- B: He's very famous. I'm hungry. Let's go to the canteen to eat.
- A: Here we are. Tell me, are you good at sports?
- B: Yes, I love football. The sports field is on the western side of the campus. It is quite far to walk. We might have to get bicycles!
- A: Remember, we have to go to a class meeting in the library. It is on the other end of the campus.
- B: Okay, I'll remember. Here comes Bob. He is already a sophomore! He has only two more years of studying to complete his degree!
