A Remote Island

A fun exercise to decide on the most useful items in two different activities

You and a few friends are stranded on a remote island in the middle of the Pacific Island. The only clothes you have are those that you wear. There is food but you will have to find it. There is a small creek with fresh water and there are trees. Below is a list of items. You may only choose 5 items from the list for each activity. You will stay on the island for three months.

mirror	rope	watch	tent	pot
flare gun	axe	knife	blanket	book
sunglasses	sunblock	umbrella	torch	compass
two-way radio	duct tape		magnifying glass

Activity One - choose 5 items that you will need to survive. You may not choose the same items as in Activity Two.
