Match The Nationality With The Country

A. Pair work

Test your partner on the different nationalities. If you say a country, your partner replies with the nationality. If you say the nationality, your partner says the country.

Example:

A: Romania (Country) B: Romanian (Nationality)
B: American (Nationality) A: USA (Country)

B. Introduction to the Conversation on the next page. Practice with your friend.

Imagine you come from one of the countries on the table. Your partner needs to guess which country you are from. Practice the conversation.

Example with a country:

Are you from Spain? No, I'm not.
Are you from Mexico? Yes, I am.

Example with nationality:

Are you South African? No, I'm not.
Are you British? Yes, I am.

C: Language - see the table of languages and practice the conversation with your friend

A common introduction of oneself when meeting a stranger. We usually find out from which country our new friend comes from as well as the language that they speak in that country.

Example conversation:

- A: Hello, my name is Sally.
B: Hi, my name is Chiyo. Nice to meet you.
A: Nice to meet you too. Where are you from?
B: I'm from Japan, and you?
A: I'm from Ireland.
B: What language do you speak in your country?
A: We speak English. What about you?
B: We speak Japanese.
