Planning the cruise

Agent: Good afternoon, how can I help you?

Nina: I would like to find out more about your cruise holidays.
It's for our family. We have two teenage daughters.

Agent: Certainly, this is our brochure and as you can see there are many itineraries to choose from. Different dates and itineraries cater for families, 30 - 50 years and older people. These are the prices. You only pay for the cabin.
Meals and activities on the ship are all included. You pay everything in advance. Once on the cruise, you do not have to worry about any costs, only when you visit the ports and obviously, some restaurants on the ship are not included in the price.

Nina: Thank you very much. I am going to discuss this with my family.

Agent: All right. I'll see you when you've made your decision.
Good bye.

Booking the cruise

Agent: Nina, have you decided which cruise to take?

Nina: Yes, we have. We would like to go on a 21-day cruise around Turkey and Greece.

Agent: This is a very popular route. What dates are you looking at - August?

Nina: Yes, that would suit us perfectly. Could you please see whether you can find us a family cabin with two different rooms anywhere between the 4th and the 7th deck?

Agent: Yes, I'll do that.

During the cruise

Dad: Wow, this is a lovely cabin. And we have our own little balcony. This is awesome!

Mom: Girls, you can move around as you wish on the ship. Just come home every night to sleep. I know that you will be safe, so enjoy yourselves.

Girls: Thank you mom, dad. We have already made some friends and there is a disco for teenagers on deck 10. There are adults to see that all behave.

Mom: Oh okay. Just be safe.

Girls: Of course. Have you seen that there's a lovely gym, sauna, and a running track on deck number 10? This place is amazing!

Mom: Remember dear family, tomorrow is our first port city to visit. It is Corfu. The tender will take us to the land and then we can do our own thing. Dad is going to hire a jeep and then we can do some sightseeing.
