TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

POP QUIZ

"It is not the answer that enlightens, but the question." – Eugene Ionesco

<ul> <li>Ldk</li> <li>What do we call the person who is elected (chosen) by the public to manage the city/municipality?  M_y_r</li> <li>Every country is divided into areas. Each area has cities. What do we call these areas in the US?  St_s</li> <li>What do we call the above areas in some other countries, i.e. China?  Pv_c_s</li> <li>What do we call the tall buildings in a city?  Sc_p_s</li> <li>Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?  Sw or M_t_o</li> <li>Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with</li> </ul>	1.	What do we call a famous building in a city that everyone knows?
<ol> <li>What do we call the person who is elected (chosen) by the public to manage the city/municipality?         M_y_r</li> <li>Every country is divided into areas. Each area has cities. What do we call these areas in the US?         St_s</li> <li>What do we call the above areas in some other countries, i.e. China?         Pv_c_s</li> <li>What do we call the tall buildings in a city?         Sc_p_s</li> <li>Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?         Sw_ or M_t_o</li> <li>Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)         Tm_</li> <li>What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ol>
<ol> <li>Every country is divided into areas. Each area has cities. What do we call these areas in the US?         S _ t _ s     </li> <li>What do we call the above areas in some other countries, i.e. China?         P _ v _ c _ s     </li> <li>What do we call the tall buildings in a city?         S c _ p _ s     </li> <li>Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?         S _ w _ or M _ t _ o     </li> <li>Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)         T _ m _     </li> <li>What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ol>	2.	What do we call the person who is elected (chosen) by the public to do we call these areas in the US?  St_s  4. What do we call the above areas in some other countries, i.e. China?  Pv_c_s  5. What do we call the tall buildings in a city?  Sc_p_s  6. Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?  Sw or M_t_o  7. Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)  Tm_  8. What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?		$M_y_r$
<ul> <li>S t _ s</li> <li>4. What do we call the above areas in some other countries, i.e. China?  P v c _ s</li> <li>5. What do we call the tall buildings in a city?  S c _ p s</li> <li>6. Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?  S w or M _ t _ o</li> <li>7. Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)  T m _</li> <li>8. What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ul>	3.	Every country is divided into areas. Each area has cities. What
<ol> <li>What do we call the above areas in some other countries, i.e. China?         Pvc_s     </li> <li>What do we call the tall buildings in a city?         Scps     </li> <li>Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?         Sw or M_t_o     </li> <li>Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)         Tm_     </li> <li>What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ol>		do we call these areas in the US?
China?  Pvc_s  5. What do we call the tall buildings in a city?  Scps  6. Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?  Sw or M_t_o  7. Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)  T m_  8. What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?		St_s
<ol> <li>What do we call the tall buildings in a city?         Sc_p_s     </li> <li>Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?         Sw or M_t_o     </li> <li>Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)         Tm_     </li> <li>What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ol>	4.
<ul> <li>S c _ p s</li> <li>6. Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?</li> <li>S w or M _ t _ o</li> <li>7. Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)</li> <li>T m _</li> <li>8. What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ul>		Pv_c_s
<ol> <li>Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?         S w or M_t_o         Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)         T m_</li> <li>What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ol>	5.	What do we call the tall buildings in a city?
<ul> <li>where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system?</li> <li>Sw or M_t_o</li> <li>Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)</li> <li>Tm_</li> <li>What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ul>		Sc_p_s
<ol> <li>Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)         T _ m _     </li> <li>What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?</li> </ol>	6.	where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)  T m _  8. What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?		Sw or M_t_o located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?	7.	cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (In European cities like Amsterdam, etc.)
	8.	What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?

Teacher's Key

- What do we call a famous building in a city that everyone knows?
   Landmark
- What do we call the person who is elected by the public to manage the city/municipality?
  Mayor
- Every country is divided into areas. Each area has cities. What do we call these areas in the US?
   States
- 4. What do we call the above areas in some other countries, i.e. China?

  Provinces
- 5. What do we call the tall buildings in a city? Skyscrapers
- 6. Many cities, especially the big ones, have an underground system where the public can travel on a train. What do we call this system? Subway or Metro
- 7. Some cities have a bus/train on the road that shares the road with cars. This bus/train is linked to an electric cable. What do we call these buses/trains? (Cities in Europe like Amsterdam, etc.)

  Trams
- 8. What do we call the area of a city where most businesses are located and many people work there or visit it for entertainment?

  Downtown