

Discussion Questions

Language Learning

Student A

1. What is your number one reason for studying English?
2. Which language do you think sounds the most romantic?
3. What is the English word for someone who speaks two languages? Three languages? More than three?
4. How many English words do you think you know?
5. Which is more difficult: reading, writing, listening, or speaking?
6. Would you like to have a brain implant to help you memorize thousands of words?
7. Do you have any friends who speak another language?
8. How often do you speak/use English in your daily life?
9. Do you read any English blogs or newspapers?
10. What other methods do you use to help you improve your English ability?

Student B

1. Which language do you think is difficult to learn?
2. Which language do you think sounds “angry”?
3. Do you learn more English inside or outside the classroom?
4. Do you prefer American or British English?
5. What three languages would you like to speak?
6. What kind of words do you remember the easiest?
7. What are the native languages spoken in Thailand? Brazil? Mexico? Austria? Switzerland?
8. What is your favorite English word and why?
9. Do you think English teachers should be able to speak your native language?
10. What do you think about reading out loud in English?