

Main - Activity 3

OBJECTS

1. Give each student an electronic copy, print it, or display it on a projector. Point at the different color faces. Ask them as a group:

'What color is this?'

They should answer:

'It's [COLOR].'

Repeat the question and show different colors to different students.

Let them practice in pairs.

'What color is that?'

'It's [COLOR].'

2. Show a color face to the students as a group. Ask them:

'Is this blue?' (show them a blue face).

They should answer:

'Yes, it is.'

Then show them a different color face from what you ask:

'Is that orange?' (Show them pink)

'No, it's pink.'

Practice by asking each student in the class.

Let them practice this in pairs.

3. Drill the students by pointing to a color and they need to respond with the correct color.

Handout 1 - practice the conversations you've learned
