

ADJECTIVES

1. THE POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVE

Write this on the board:

I have a car = It's my car.

You have a car = It's your car.

We have a car = It's our car.

John has a car = It's his car.

Janet has a car = It's her car.

John and Janet have a car = It's their car

Ask the students to respond to these sentences

1. Andy has a pen. _____
2. Mike has a dog. _____
3. Michelle has a coat. _____
4. Gregory has a computer. _____
5. I have a house. _____
6. We have a lesson. _____
7. Jack and Jill have a bicycle. _____
8. We have an office. _____
9. John and Barbara have a snake. _____
10. Lee has a shop. _____
11. Lily has a hat. _____
12. You have a book. _____
13. We have a shop. _____
14. David and Peter have a restaurant. _____
15. We have a table. _____
16. Lisa has a mobile phone. _____
17. You have a sweater. _____
18. I have a fish. _____
19. You have a computer. _____
20. I have a motorbike. _____

2. Conversation

Michael: Hi Stephanie

Stephanie: Hi Michael. I like your t-shirt.

Michael: Thank you. I think the color is a little bit too bright, what do you think?

Stephanie: I think it really looks cool!

Michael: You also look very beautiful. I like your shoes!. They are very high though.

Stephanie: They are my sister's shoes. She lent them to me.

Michael: Your sister has good taste!

Let the students practice this conversation in pairs.

