

YOUR TEACHER SAYS

1. You will read a sentence to your students and follow it up by saying: ... and your teacher says, it's true/false.
Example: Cats are better pets than dogs... and your teacher says, it's true.
2. Give your students a moment to think about this and they must then agree or disagree with you, and tell you briefly why.
3. Make some sentences true and some false. Have fun!
4. Depending on the size of your class, you can allow multiple students to answer/debate your statement.

1. We should drink tea without milk.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
2. Sugar spoils the taste of tea.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
3. Green tea is healthy.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
4. 10.00 am teatime should be called coffee time.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
5. Iced tea is delicious.
6. There are too many different teas, it is confusing to shop for tea.
7. It is also confusing to decide which tea to drink when you go out for something to drink.
8. Dipping cookies in tea is not as nice as dipping cookies in coffee.
