The Picture Is Only the Beginning

Find the differences between A and B.

Now choose three differences.

For each one, explain:

1. What is different?
2. Where is it?
3. How would you describe the change?

Try to speak for 30 seconds without stopping.

Life on a Farm

Imagine you have just moved to this farm.

What would be:

Easy? _____

Difficult? _____

Interesting? _____

Boring? _____

Explain your choices.

City or Country?

Compare living in:

- a big city
- a small town
- the countryside

Discuss:

- noise
- transport
- jobs
- nature
- animals
- shopping
- free time
- neighbours

Which would you choose?

What Does a Farmer Really Do?

Make a list of jobs a farmer might have to do.

Try to think beyond:

“Look after animals.”

List: _____

Consider:

- feeding
- cleaning
- repairing
- planting
- selling
- planning
- checking
- transporting
- buying
- maintaining

Which jobs sound the hardest?

Farming Choices

A farmer has limited money.

They can choose only two:

- buy a new tractor
- build a bigger animal shelter
- plant more vegetables
- buy more animals
- repair the old barn
- install solar panels

Which two should they choose?

Explain your decision.

Agree or Disagree?

1. Living on a farm is healthier than living in a city.
2. Children should spend more time around animals.
3. Modern technology makes farming easier.
4. Farms are important even for people who live in cities.
5. People should know more about where their food comes from.

Choose two and explain your opinions.

Story Challenge

Imagine this:

You wake up early on the farm and discover that one of the animals is missing.

Tell the story.

Include:

- where you look
- who helps you
- what happens
- how you find the animal
