The Ten-Difference Challenge

Find all ten differences.

Now choose:

The easiest difference _____

The hardest difference _____

The funniest difference _____

Explain your choices.

Christmas Around the World

Discuss:

1. Is Christmas celebrated in your country?
2. What food do people eat?
3. What decorations are popular?
4. Do people exchange presents?
5. Are there any unusual traditions?

Compare your country with another country you know.

The Perfect Present

You have to buy a Christmas present for:

a close friend • a teenager
your mother • your boss • a teacher

Choose one. What would you buy?

Explain: • what it is

- how much it costs
- why the person would like it

Short Writing

My Perfect Christmas.

Write 100–120 words.

Describe your ideal Christmas Day.

Look Beyond the Picture

What does it tell us about Christmas traditions?

Discuss:

- What objects are important?
- Which decorations are traditional?
- What might people do at home?
- What might happen before and after the scene?

Christmas Memory

Tell your partner about a Christmas you remember well.

Try to include:

- where you were
- who was there
- what you did
- what you ate
- one thing that went wrong
- one thing you remember clearly

Agree or Disagree?

1. Christmas is too commercial.
2. Giving presents is better than receiving them.
3. Christmas is more enjoyable for children than adults.
4. Families should spend Christmas together.
5. Christmas decorations are worth the effort.

Choose two and discuss.
