1. Compare the Pictures

Look carefully at Picture A and Picture B.

Complete the sentences.

1. In Picture A, the woman is _____, whereas in Picture B she is _____.
2. In Picture A, there is _____, but in Picture B _____.
3. In Picture A, the _____ is _____. In Picture B, it is _____.
4. The _____ is in a different place in Picture _____.
5. There are _____ in Picture A, while Picture B has _____.

2. Choose the Best Word

Choose: but • while • whereas • however • instead of

1. The woman is carrying a bag, _____ the man is carrying nothing.
2. Picture A has a bicycle, _____ Picture B does not.
3. The woman is wearing a dress, _____ the other woman is wearing trousers.
4. The shop has one display in A. _____, the display is different in B.
5. There is a chair in Picture A _____ a table.

3. Make the Sentence Longer

Turn each short sentence into a more detailed sentence.

Example: The woman has a bag.

→ The woman is carrying a shopping bag while she walks past the shops.

Now try:

1. A man is riding a bicycle. _____
2. There is a dog. _____
3. A woman is looking at clothes. _____
4. There are people outside the café. _____

4. Describe a Difference

Choose five differences between the pictures.

For each one, write a complete sentence.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

5. Don't Say A or B!

Choose one difference.

Describe it to your partner without saying "Picture A" or "Picture B."

Your partner must guess which picture you are describing.

Example:

The woman is carrying a large red shopping bag.

Partner: "Picture B!"

Now change roles.

6. Explain the Difference

Choose three differences.

Don't just say what changed. Explain how the two pictures are different.

Example:

The bicycle is in a different place. In one picture, it is next to the shop, but in the other picture, it is near the café.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
