

A BURGER, PLEASE

© talkmor.com

Activity 1: What can you see?

Look at the big picture. Name as many things as you can.

Vocabulary Bank

Food & Drink

Other Words

| | | | |
|--------------|-------------------|--------------|-------------------|
| cheeseburger | onion | French fries | restaurant |
| hamburger | pickles | viniger | menu |
| beef patty | bacon | ketchup | counter |
| cheese | hot dog | mustard | waiter / waitress |
| lettuce | side salad | mayoniase | customer |
| tomato | soda / soft drink | bun | tray |

Activity 2: Name 3...

1. Name 3 things on the big burger.
2. Name 3 things you can eat with French fries.
3. Name 3 toppings for a burger.
4. Name 3 things you can see on the table.
5. Name 3 things people are doing in the restaurant.

Activity 3: Adverbs of Frequency

How often do you eat these foods?

Write true sentences.

- always – usually – often – sometimes – seldom – never

Examples:

- I sometimes eat burgers.
- I never eat hot dogs.

Activity 4: The "Price is Right"

Invent the economy.

Task: Assign a letter to the main items

A: Burger B: Fries C: Drink D: Hot Dog E: Salad

F: Extra cheese, bacon, vegetables, ketchup, mustard

Activity: In pairs, decide what you think a "fair price" is for each item in today's money.

Debate: If one student says the burger is $5 and another says $15, you have to explain why (e.g., "It has bacon and extra cheese!").

Activity 5: The "Missing Ingredient" Mystery

- This is a "Secret Recipe" burger.
- List everything you can see inside the bun.

- Invent one "invisible" ingredient that makes it the best burger in the world

Example: "The sauce is made of mango" or "The pickles are spicy."
