

Find the correct words.

FILL THE GAPS

The Sandal

climate wrapped versatile eloquence pinpointed sandal accessories replica paintings trendiest

Shoes have one of the longest histories of any of the clothing items that we still wear in modern times. While it cannot be _____ to a specific place or time, _____ from Egypt to China and various other early civilizations indicate that some form or _____ of shoes existed back in ancient times already. Depending on the _____, people either simply strapped leaves around their feet if they were in warm, temperate regions, or they _____ their feet, ankles, and calves in animal skins if they were in colder regions with harsher terrains.

Today, one of the most commonly worn footwear items in warm areas is the _____. Easily slid on and comfy as hell, it can be decorated with impressive _____ to give it more class for a more formal situation, or it can be made with a plain, simple design reflecting _____; it all depends on the maker and wearer's culture and taste. Amongst youngsters and many hippies, a sandal commonly referred to as the "Jesus Sandal" is one of the _____ footwear items today and is considered a must-have, followed by the deeply beloved flip-flop that gained ground in the 1960s. Simplistic, hassle-free, comfortable, and _____, the flip-flop is the 20th century's top go-to shoe, with prices ranging from $27 - $45 dollars for a single pair!