

Fill the gaps.

BICYCLES

The top 20 bicycle-friendly cities in the world.

How good is your pronunciation? Can you pronounce the following names?

- 11. Barcelona - A gorgeous city in Spain
- 18. Minneapolis - An American city
- 3. Utrecht - A city in the Netherlands
- 13. Ljubljana - The capital of Slovenia

- 5. Eindhoven
- 16. Vienna
- 8. Bordeaux
- 1. Copenhagen

Fill the Gaps

1. dogs
2. four
3. traffic
4. stolen
5. snows
6. canals
7. people
8. parking
9. happily
10. museum
11. groceries
12. infrastructure

Seemingly just about everyone here rides a bike. It is not unusual to see mothers, grandmothers, business people, police officers, old and young hippies, and so on _____ bike along.

Some people walk their _____ by bike. Others use it to bring home _____, flowers, furniture, children, girlfriends, or anything else one can think of.

Some Facts About Amsterdam Bicycles.

1. Amsterdam has the only _____ in the world you can cycle through; it's the Rijksmuseum.
2. One of the most photographed sights in Amsterdam is the bicycle _____ at Amsterdam Central Station.
3. There are more bikes than _____ in the Netherlands.
4. Currently, 68% of _____ to and from work or school is by bike.
5. Combined, Amsterdammers cycle about two million km every day.
6. The Dutch government has announced plans to spend an extra €245m on bicycle _____.
7. There are more than 881,000 bicycles in Amsterdam. That's _____ times the number of cars.
8. More than 60% of Amsterdammers use their bicycle daily, even when it _____!
9. In Amsterdam today, there is approximately 515 km of cycle lanes.
10. There are 7,800 official bike parking places near Amsterdam Central Station, but more than 8,200 bicycles are typically parked there.
11. Around 80,000 bicycles are _____ in Amsterdam each year.
12. About 15,000 bicycles are pulled out of Amsterdam's _____ each year.

Teacher's Key

- | | |
|--------------|-------------------|
| 1. happily | 7. traffic |
| 2. dogs | 8. infrastructure |
| 3. groceries | 9. four |
| 4. museum | 10. snows |
| 5. parking | 11. stolen |
| 6. people | 12. canals |

Seemingly just about everyone here rides a bike. It is not unusual to see mothers, grandmothers, business people, police officers, old and young hippies, and so on happily bike along.

Some people walk their dogs by bike. Others use it to bring home groceries, flowers, furniture, children, girlfriends, or anything else one can think of.

Some Facts About Amsterdam Bicycles.

1. Amsterdam has the only museum in the world you can cycle through; it's the Rijksmuseum.
2. One of the most photographed sights in Amsterdam is the bicycle parking at Amsterdam Central Station.
3. There are more bikes than people in the Netherlands.
4. Currently, 68% of traffic to and from work or school is by bike.
5. Combined, Amsterdammers cycle about two million km every day.
6. The Dutch government has announced plans to spend an extra €245m on bicycle infrastructure.
7. There are more than 881,000 bicycles in Amsterdam. That's four times the number of cars.
8. More than 60% of Amsterdammers use their bicycle daily, even when it snows!
9. In Amsterdam today, there is approximately 515 km of cycle lanes.
10. There are 7,800 official bike parking places near Amsterdam Central Station, but more than 8,200 bicycles are typically parked there.
11. Around 80,000 bicycles are stolen in Amsterdam each year.
12. About 15,000 bicycles are pulled out of Amsterdam's canals each year.