

Fill the gaps.

HOLLAND

1. stalls
2. lively
3. Dutch
4. locals
5. stands
6. current
7. attractions
8. experience
9. best-known
10. powerhouse

Flower Market in Amsterdam

The Netherlands is famous as a flower _____ and especially for its tulips. Therefore, it is not surprising that one of the most popular _____ in Amsterdam is the flower market, or as it is called in _____ - Bloemenmarkt. There are many flower markets around the country, but the flower market in Amsterdam is without a doubt the _____ and most popular of them.

The Dutch are known to be big fans of fresh flowers, so you'll see plenty of _____ shopping at the Bloemenmarkt. The tourists also like to come to the market, mainly to take pictures and be impressed by the colors, together they contribute to the _____ atmosphere and the crowds that visit the market all year round.

The market has been in its _____ location for over 50 years. It is called the "floating market", but the only things that float in it are the boat houses behind the flower stands. And yet, the flower market of Amsterdam is a colorful and special _____ that should not be missed.

The flower market of Amsterdam is not very big, it contains about 15 flower _____ of different types. The market takes place in the open air, throughout the year, and accordingly sells flowers and plants that grow in that season.

Another thing that is important to note is the marijuana _____ in the market. In Amsterdam, as everyone knows, Marijuana is legal, it is allowed to smoke and grow at home, and therefore it is a very prosperous industry. However, it is recommended to be careful of dealers who will sell you seeds or different kits for growing cannabis at home.

<https://p-netherlands.co.il/en/close/flower-market-amsterdam-bloemenmarkt/>

Teacher's Key

- | | |
|----------------|---------------|
| 1. powerhouse | 6. lively |
| 2. attractions | 7. current |
| 3. Dutch | 8. experience |
| 4. best-known | 9. stands |
| 5. locals | 10. stalls |

Flower Market in Amsterdam

The Netherlands is famous as a flower powerhouse and especially for its tulips. Therefore, it is not surprising that one of the most popular attractions in Amsterdam is the flower market, or as it is called in Dutch - Bloemenmarkt. There are many flower markets around the country, but the flower market in Amsterdam is without a doubt the best-known and most popular of them.

The Dutch are known to be big fans of fresh flowers, so you'll see plenty of locals shopping at the Bloemenmarkt. The tourists also like to come to the market, mainly to take pictures and be impressed by the colors, together they contribute to the lively atmosphere and the crowds that visit the market all year round.

The market has been in its current location for over 50 years. It is called the "floating market", but the only things that float in it are the boat houses behind the flower stands. And yet, the flower market of Amsterdam is a colorful and special experience that should not be missed.

The flower market of Amsterdam is not very big, it contains about 15 flower stands of different types. The market takes place in the open air, throughout the year, and accordingly sells flowers and plants that grow in that season.

Another thing that is important to note is the marijuana stalls in the market. In Amsterdam, as everyone knows, Marijuana is legal, it is allowed to smoke and grow at home, and therefore it is a very prosperous industry. However, it is recommended to be careful of dealers who will sell you seeds or different kits for growing cannabis at home.

<https://p-netherlands.co.il/en/close/flower-market-amsterdam-bloemenmarkt/>