

SHORT STORY.

Butcher's Day

My name is Tammy and today I am visiting Mr. Butcher down the road. The meat is a little expensive but of high quality. Mr. Butcher is famous all over the city.

On a Sunday my family has a barbecue. For this, I always buy lamb chops, beef sausage, chicken pieces, and pork ribs.

Mr. Butcher pre-packs our meat. He puts 4 pieces in a freezer bag as we are 4 people in the family. I store the meat in the freezer to keep it fresh.

I usually buy chicken pieces instead of a whole chicken. We like to eat roast chicken and chicken pasta.

Mr. Butcher cuts the steak into different cuts, e.g. sirloin, rump, and T-bone. Once every other week, I spoil my family with steak and chips. I like my steak medium to well, but my husband and sons prefer theirs, medium to rare.

Mr. Butcher's beef sausage is very famous in the city. The recipe that he uses comes from his great-grandmother and has been handed down from generation to generation. The recipe is of course a secret.

The beef sausage is definitely one of my favorites!
