

GUIDELINE

A LONG WEEKEND

Lesson Objectives

Introducing a long weekend and some activities

Target Language

We just want to relax and sleep late. We want to visit a club where my friend is the DJ. We bought tickets for a concert in the main square. The band is awesome! We are four girls in an apartment and share the rent. We watch movies together and each one gets a turn to prepare dinner. Mom spoils us and bring some groceries. We like to eat pizza and junk food. I am going to take a nap as I have a date with a cute boy.

Vocabulary

apartment, junk food, spoils, cute, nap, prepare, pizza, days off, sleep late, awesome, band, DJ, movies, busy company, bedroom, party, garden, swimming pool, sunscreen, sunglasses, etc.

Talkmor suggestion:

Tell your students that you are going to test their comprehension ability with a short article.

The students should take turns reading the article. Correct pronunciation. Explain any unfamiliar vocabulary. Let the students repeat the word after you to get the correct pronunciation.

Students read the article for a second time, softly.

Finally, the students answer the comprehension questions and complete the worksheets.
