Volunteer in Missouri, USA – requirements and tasks

VOLUNTEER IN MISSOURI, USA AND HELP TO RESTORE THE NATIVE FLORA.

'Hamilton Native Outpost' strives to provide a _____ of adapted native plants and the knowledge to establish and _____ them for ecosystem restoration, wildlife habitat, grazing, and beauty in low-maintenance landscapes. Livestock adapted to the environment is a complementary enterprise.

We need help with mostly hand tool _____ of invasive species/plants.

On-the-job _____ of native and non-native plant species will be provided. Also some planting, and harvesting by _____. Working with cattle and bison herds. Fence repair. Vehicle maintenance, order fulfillment, and computer work.

We're open from May to June. We provide a three _____ 1 1/2 bath.

Room for a family, single person, group of helpers, possible shared space, and boondocking _____.

Field management, mostly hand tools, fence mending, possible bison, or cattle management.

The schedule is _____, we can discuss it. We'll ask you for help for about 32 hours a week.

Volunteer in Missouri, USA – what we offer

Ozark National Scenic Riverways is a short _____ away! Foraging and fishing are available right on the property. The town is not far away with plenty of options for _____ and dining.
