

HOW TO CLEAN MY ROOM

Example of how to use sequence words

1. What do you do first when you want something to drink for breakfast?
2. What do you do second?
3. What do you do next?
4. And then?
5. After that?
6. What do you do last? [before you leave your house]
7. And finally, you go out and close the door behind you.

How To Place An Order At McDonald's

Put these sentences in the correct order. [use sequence words]

1. _____, when you get to the front, place your order. Speak clearly!
2. _____, listen for your number that's on the receipt.
3. _____, find a table and enjoy your meal.
4. _____, look at the menu and decide what you want.
5. _____, don't eat fast food too often, it's not healthy.
6. _____, stand in line.
7. _____, pay the cashier, and take your receipt [slip].
8. _____, if you hear your number, go and collect your order.

Sequence words we can use when we give instructions.

Words we use in the beginning:

Before... Before you do anything, ...
First... First you... First of all...
Second...

Words we use in the middle:

Then... Then you...
After that... After that, you can...
Next... Next you...

Words we use at the end:

Now... Now you can...
Lastly... And finally... And finally you...

Teacher's Key

How To Place An Order At McDonald's

Put these sentences in the correct order. [use sequence words]

1. _____, stand in line.
2. _____, look at the menu and decide what you want.
3. _____, when you get to the front, place your order. Speak clearly!
4. _____, pay the cashier, and take your receipt [slip].
5. _____, listen for your number that's on the receipt.
6. _____, if you hear your number, go and collect your order.
7. _____, find a table and enjoy your meal.
8. _____, don't eat fast food too often, it's not healthy.