

Short story.

A MOVIE EVENING

During the summer vacation, Mom and Dad always treat me with extra pocket money so that I can go to the cinema.

I love watching movies in the movie house. The sound is great and everybody is as quiet as a mouse. We have a big cinema. I always choose to sit in the middle row of the middle block as I feel close to the big screen! I don't like sitting on an aisle seat because people climb over me.

I heard that our town is getting an IMAX theatre. Oh goodness, that would be awesome! Imagine, watching Avengers in an IMAX!

My parents usually drop me off at the cinema and then they go for dinner. I usually meet my friends and then we watch a movie together.

My friend works at the ticket office and I usually book my seat through him. He always tells me about new movies and their release dates.

Movie evening goes hand in hand with popcorn and a soda. I do not usually drink sodas, but I enjoy Coca-Cola when I go to the cinema. I quietly consume the popcorn and Coca-Cola to avoid disturbing the audience.

The speakers are so big which makes the sound really awesome. We live in a small town so everyone likes to go to the movies on a Saturday evening and the school children usually hang out during vacations.

My favorite actor is Tom Cruise and my brother likes The Rock. Both star in action movies which we thoroughly enjoy. We forget about the world around us and just lose ourselves in all the movie action scenes.

What is your favorite kind of movie and who is your favorite actor?
