

Dialogue and sentences.

A MOVIE EVENING

1. Hi Carlos, what are you doing on Saturday?
2. I have nothing to do. What are you doing?
3. Do you feel like going to the movies? I want to see the new Superman movie.
4. Yes, great idea. What time do you want to go?
5. In the afternoon.
6. Good idea. I can help my father wash his car on Saturday morning. He will give me some pocket money and we can use it for popcorn and sodas.
7. Nice! Do you think if I clean my room my mom will give me pocket money as well?
8. Haha. Try that. Clean your room early on Saturday and when it's nice and tidy, call your mother to have a look.
9. Great! See you then. Bye.

Sentences About Movies

I love watching cartoons.

My mother only watches romantic movies.

My friends and I often watch comedy movies. It's very funny.

Do you drink a small, medium, or large soda at the cinema?

Do you prefer the morning show, afternoon show, or evening show?

What type of movies do you dislike?

Who is your favorite actor and actress?