

Teacher's Guide.

YES NO QUESTIONS

Lesson Objectives

Questions With The Verb "Be"

Students practice using full sentences to ask and answer questions.

Target Language

Do you like... ? [Eng, Europe, dogs, singing, winter, chocolate cake, etc]

Do you like to... ? [go swimming, drink beer, wake up in the morning, etc]

Do you take... ? [the subway, train, bus, medicine, extra classes, etc]

My name is Anthony. Question: What is your name?

Etc.

Vocabulary

fresh juice

barbecue

email address

sandwich

cycle popular watch

underground

Portugal

snack better than...

Mandarin

Yes/No questions allow parents and teachers to offer choices, and children to have more control over their lives by giving a clear yes or no answer. Being able to answer yes/no questions can reduce frustration for both children and parents. It is also simple/easy for English learners to understand and answer yes/no questions.

NO
YES

