

AIRPORTS

Airports: Comparatives and Superlatives - Underline the correct word

1. The (biggest/bigger) airport in the world is Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport.
2. It is (faster/fastest) to fly than to drive a car.
3. It is (safer/safest) to fly than to drive a car.
4. A business-class ticket is (most expensive/more expensive) than an economy-class ticket.
5. I enjoy flying the (most/more).
6. The first-class ticket is the (more/most expensive)
7. It takes (longer/longest) to fly from Cape Town to Sydney than from Cape Town to London.
8. The captain is the (most/more responsible) person on board the aircraft.
9. Business Class is (more/most luxurious) than Economy Class.
10. Economy Class is the (cheaper/cheapest).

Circle the error. Some sentences may be correct.

1. Passengers is the people who fly.
2. The cabin crew are very friendly.
3. We need an passport to fly abroad.
4. The pilot were called the captain.
5. We can watches a movie onboard the airplane.
6. We spend much hours in the air when we travel from Africa to Australia.
7. The air hostess are very friendly and helpful.
8. I need to go through customers with my luggage.
9. I want to sit on a aisle seat.
10. We can eat any food on the airplane.

Teacher's Key

Airports: Comparatives and Superlatives - Underline the correct word

1. The (biggest/bigger) airport in the world is Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport.
2. It is (faster/fastest) to fly than to drive a car.
3. It is (safer/safest) to fly than to drive a car.
4. A business-class ticket is (most expensive/more expensive) than an economy-class ticket.
5. I enjoy flying the (most/more).
6. The first-class ticket is the (more/most expensive)
7. It takes (longer/longest) to fly from Cape Town to Sydney than from Cape Town to London.
8. The captain is the (most/more responsible) person on board the aircraft.
9. Business Class is (more/most luxurious) than Economy Class.
10. Economy Class is the (cheaper/cheapest).

Circle the error. Some sentences may be correct.

1. Passengers are the people who fly.
2. The cabin crew is very friendly.
3. We need a passport to fly abroad.
4. The pilot was called the captain.
5. We can watch a movie onboard the airplane.
6. We spend many hours in the air when we travel from Africa to Australia.
7. The air hostesses are very friendly and helpful.
8. I need to go through customs with my luggage.
9. I want to sit on an aisle seat.
10. We can eat any food on the airplane.