Airports

Practice these conversations with a friend.

On the way to the Airport

- Bill: Do you have your passport and ticket?
Sally: Yes, they are in my backpack.
Bill: How many bags are you checking in?
Sally: Two. And you?
Bill: I only have carry-on luggage.

A pass to the business lounge

- Harry: We are spending four hours in Dubai. Do you want to pay for a pass to the business lounge?
Nancy: Yes, I think we should.
Harry: We can shower and put on some fresh clothes.
Nancy: Okay.

At Departures

At Check-In

Agent: Good day, may I have your ticket and passport please?

Passenger: Certainly.

Agent: Please put your baggage on the scale. What kind of seat would you like?

Passenger: A window seat, please.

Agent: Good. Here is your boarding pass. Enjoy your flight.

Passenger: Thank you. Goodbye.

At Security Check

Agent: Please put all your things in the tray and step through the metal-detector. Thank you.

At Passport Control

Agent: Please look at the camera and hand me your passport and boarding pass. Thank you, you may go.

At Arrivals

At Immigration Check

Agent: May I have your passport please. Why have you come to this country?

Passenger: I would like to travel and see your country.

Agent: Where will you stay during your vacation?

Passenger: In the Hilton Hotel, this is the address.

Agent: How long do you plan to stay?

Passenger Two weeks.

At Customs Check

Agent: Do you mind opening your bags for me?

Passenger: Not a problem.

Agent: Is this the only computer you have on you?

Passenger: No, I have one more which I bought for my sister.

Agent: Do you perhaps have a receipt for it?

Passenger: Yes, I do. Here it is.

Agent: Thank you. You may go through!

Outside The Airport Terminal

Hailing a taxi

- Taxi driver: Where would you like to go?
- Passenger: Here is the address of my hotel. Is it far?
- Taxi driver: Not too far. It will take about 10 minutes.
- Passenger: Okay.
- Taxi driver: Let's go.

At the hotel

- Front desk: Good day, can I help you?
- Guest: Yes, please. My name is Sally Petersen. I have booked a room for three nights.
- Front desk: Let me just check your booking. Welcome, Ms Petersen. Here is your key card for your room. Enjoy your stay!
- Guest: Thank you.
