

THERE IS, THERE ARE, THERE WILL BE

Fill the gaps with there is, there are, there isn't or there aren't.

1. There ____ a mall on Main Street.
2. There ____ any pools on Main Str.
3. There ____ a barber on Church Str.
4. There ____ a car on the road.
5. There ____ many trees in the town.
6. There ____ any bicycles in sight.
7. There ____ chairs outside the café.
8. There ____ an umbrella at the café.
9. There ____ three swimming pools.
10. There ____ a person on the road.
11. There ____ a Chinese restaurant on the corner.
12. There ____ two cars parked under the trees.

Fill the gaps with the correct form of there is and a preposition of place.

1. There _____ a grocery store _____ the Chinese restaurant.
2. There _____ chairs _____ the cafe and candy shop.
3. There _____ any buses _____ the road.
4. There _____ a pizza restaurant in this town.
5. There _____ a café _____ the diner.
6. There _____ a cinema _____ Church Street.
7. There _____ a grocery store _____ the diner and the Chinese restaurant.
8. There _____ any parks _____ Church Street.
9. There _____ a barber shop _____ the end of the street.
10. There _____ a Candy Shop _____ the barber shop.