

YOUR TEACHER SAYS

1. You will read a sentence to your students and follow it up by saying: ... and your teacher says it's true/false.
- Example: Cats are better pets than dogs... and your teacher says it's true.
2. Give your students a moment to think about that and they must then agree or disagree with you, and tell you briefly why.
3. Make some true sentences true and some false. Have fun!
4. Depending on the size of your class, you can allow multiple students to answer/ debate your statement with them.

1. Cats make better companions than dogs.
...and your teacher says that's...
2. School students should have no homework.
...and your teacher says that's...
3. If there is no homework, two hours of sport should be compulsory after school.
...and your teacher says that's...
4. Dinner is the most important meal of the day.
5. Primary school students should all study home economics.
6. Smoking should be illegal.
7. Swimming classes should be compulsory in primary school.
8. Children should take care of their aging parents.
9. Swearing should be banned in all TV shows.
10. We should all be allowed to plan our funerals.
11. High school students should be allowed to wear jewelry.
12. Charging women more than men for the same product should be banned.

=====

True or False

1. Studying English is a problem.
2. Commuting to school is a problem.
3. Being happy every day is a problem.
4. Not having enough pocket money is a problem.
5. Your little brother/sister is a "problem."
6. Keeping your room/house clean is a problem.
7. Looking good all the time is a problem.
8. Eating your vegetables is a problem.
9. Getting enough sleep is a problem.
10. Having some privacy in my house is a problem.

