

TOURISTS

1. You will read a sentence to your students and follow it up by saying: ... and your teacher says, it's true/false.

Example: Cats are better pets than dogs... and your teacher says, it's true.

2. Give your students a moment to think about this and they must then agree or disagree with you, and tell you briefly why.
3. Make some sentences true and some false. Have fun!
4. Depending on the size of your class, you can allow multiple students to answer/debate your statement.

1. There are so many beautiful and interesting places to visit, I don't know where to go first.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

2. Big Ben is the most interesting attraction in Europe.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

3. Actually, The Eiffel Tower is the most interesting tourist attraction in Europe.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

4. The Great Wall Of China is always overcrowded.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

5. Going off-the-beaten-track is boring.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

6. Traveling during the summer vacation is horrible. There are too many tourists everywhere and you have to stand in long lines.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

7. India is one of the most amazing countries in the world.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

8. The most relaxing holiday is an African Safari.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

9. France is expensive. There are better places to spend your money.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

10. Traveling by train is awesome and much better for the environment than traveling by plane.

And your teacher says it's false/true.

