

TOURISTS

Decide if these sentences are True or False

	T/F
The Taj Mahal is a palace.	_____
The Statue of Liberty is in Canada.	_____
Mount Fuji is in Africa.	_____
The Great Wall Of China is more than 20,000 km long.	_____
The Sydney Opera House is in Sydney.	_____
The Amazon rainforest is shrinking by thousands of kilometers per year.	_____
Machu Picchu is in the Alps mountain range in Europe.	_____
Istanbul in Turkey is situated on two continents.	_____
Bangkok is the capital of Thailand.	_____
Thailand is one of the biggest tourist destinations in the world.	_____

=====

New Rules

Tourists often behave badly when they are away from home and some tourist places are complaining about this. Make some rules about these problems and give reasons why you suggest them.

If your teacher allows you more time, you can research the “problems” and find information about them in different countries, why they are considered problems, and how they affect the local people.

Problem	Hint	New Rules and Why
Clothes	Dress code	_____
Airplanes	Noise & air pollution	_____
Photos	Permission	_____
Restaurants	Manners	_____
Local people	Respect	_____
Souvenirs	Environment	_____
Litter	Pollution	_____
Tour groups	Crowded	_____
Noise	Late nights	_____
Food	Price hikes	_____

Teacher's Key

	True	False
The Taj Mahal is a palace. A previous ruler had it built as a monument and tomb	_____	False
The Statue of Liberty is in Canada. It is in New York	_____	False
Mount Fuji is in Africa. It is in Japan	_____	False
The Great Wall Of China is more than 20,000 km long.	True	_____
The Sydney Opera House is in Sydney.	True	_____
The Amazon rainforest is shrinking by thousands of kilometers per year.	True	_____
Machu Picchu is in the Alps mountain range in Europe. It is in the Andes Mountains in Peru	_____	False
Istanbul in Turkey is situated on 2 continents.	True	_____
Bangkok is the capital of Thailand.	True	_____
Thailand is one of the biggest tourist destinations in the world.	True	_____