

SCHOOL

Just a few “fun” questions always help get the students relaxed and in an “English mood”.

1. (Dear students or ladies and gentlemen or boys and girls) are you happy to be back?
2. Who of you studied English during the holidays?
3. Who of you watched an English movie?
4. Who of you spoke English to another person?
5. Ask something “impossible and possibly funny”:
 - a. Who of you went to the moon for a few days?
 - b. Who of you bought the new iPhone 35? (Or another number)
 - c. Who of you met your future husband or wife?
 - d. Did you ride an ostrich/kangaroo/camel/elephant?
 - e. Did any of you win the lottery (without telling me)?
6. Are you all happy that we are going to study English again?

=====

True or False

1. Your mother is happy that you are back in school.
2. You are happier than your mother that you are back at school.
3. You are going to be a good student this term/semester.
4. You are looking forward to the next holiday/vacation.
5. I know you are excited about the test/exam next week. [or whenever]
6. You are looking most forward to your _____ classes. [any class they don't like]

I'm so happy you are all excited, let's begin!

