

WARMUP

Student A

1. What bad habit do you want to get rid of first?
2. What bad habits do you see in movies that irritate you?
3. Do you ever watch too much TV before studying English?
4. Do you forget to bring your English notebook to class sometimes?
5. Do you get sleepy during English lessons?
6. Do you eat lunch right before class and feel full when speaking?
7. What are some really bad eating habits?
8. Do you sometimes feel frustrated when learning English?
9. What habits should governments encourage people to quit?
10. How can people make money from other people's bad habits?
11. Where, or from whom, do you think you learned the best habits?
12. Do you ever procrastinate on your homework?
13. Do you think relying too much on a dictionary in class is a bad habit? Why?

Student B

1. Who has the most bad habits in your family?
2. Where do children learn the most bad habits, at home or school?
3. What's a good way to wake yourself up before studying English?
4. Is there a special place you keep your notebook to remember it?
5. What habit about your English studies is a problem for you?
6. What can you do to stay focused and awake in class?
7. Do you sleep in your English classes?
8. What do you suggest are the best eating habits?
9. What is your worst habit, according to your mother?
10. What kind of healthy snack can you eat before class to feel good?
11. When you feel frustrated, what helps you keep learning English?
12. Have you noticed any bad habits you have when speaking English, like using filler words ("um," "like") too much?
13. In your opinion, is it a bad habit to be shy about speaking English in class?

