

BUYING / SHOPPING

A. Comparatives and Superlatives - Comparing Prices

Compare the prices of the items given. Use the words in parentheses to complete the sentences with the correct form of comparatives (cheaper than, more expensive than) or superlatives (the cheapest, the most expensive).

1. Bread is _____ cheese.
2. Cheese is _____ bread.
3. Bread is _____ of the three.
4. Cheese is _____ of the three.
5. A T-shirt is _____ jeans.
6. A jacket is _____ of the three.
7. Jeans are _____ a T-shirt.
8. A T-shirt is _____ of the three.
9. Apples are _____ oranges.
10. Oranges are _____ apples.
11. Oranges are _____ of the three.
12. Bananas are _____ of the three.
13. Laptop A is _____ Laptop B.
14. Laptop A is _____ of the three.
15. Laptop B is _____ Laptop A.

B. Preference and Choices - Complete the sentences using comparatives or superlatives based on the preferences or choices indicated.

1. I prefer _____ (fresh) fruit to canned fruit.
2. My sister thinks that jeans are _____ (comfortable) than skirts.
3. This bakery has _____ (good) bread in town.
4. He always buys _____ (expensive) wine for special occasions.
5. Which store has _____ (friendly) staff?
6. The new smartphone is _____ (advanced) than the old one.
7. My brother thinks that action movies are _____ (exciting) than comedies.
8. Among all the shops in the area, this one has _____ (wide) selection of products.

C. Create Your Own Sentences - Create sentences comparing shopping items using comparatives or superlatives. Use the prompts provided.

1. _____ (Book A) / _____ (Book B)
 - Write a sentence comparing the prices of two books.

2. _____ (Shoes) / _____ (Sandals)
 - Write a sentence comparing the comfort of shoes and sandals.

3. _____ (Store A) / _____ (Store B)
 - Write a sentence comparing the variety of products in two stores.

D. Fill in the gaps with the correct pronouns

1. Sarah went shopping because _____ needed a new dress. _____ favorite store was having a sale, so _____ decided to check it out. At the store, _____ saw a beautiful dress that _____ really liked. However, _____ wasn't sure if _____ would fit. The salesperson helped _____ find the right size and _____ tried it on. _____ looked perfect on her, and _____ decided to buy _____. After paying for the dress, _____ thanked the salesperson and left the store feeling very happy.

Teacher's Key

A. Comparatives and Superlatives - Comparing Prices

1. Bread is cheaper than cheese.
2. Cheese is more expensive than bread.
3. Bread is the cheapest of the three.
4. Cheese is the most expensive of the three.
5. A T-shirt is cheaper than jeans.
6. A jacket is the most expensive of the three.
7. Jeans are more expensive than a T-shirt.
8. A T-shirt is the cheapest of the three.
9. Apples are cheaper than oranges.
10. Oranges are more expensive than apples.
11. Oranges are the most expensive of the three.
12. Bananas are the cheapest of the three.
13. Laptop A is cheaper than Laptop B.
14. Laptop A is the cheapest of the three.
15. Laptop B is more expensive than Laptop A.

B. Preferences and Choices

1. fresh
2. more comfortable
3. the best
4. the most expensive
5. the friendliest
6. more advanced
7. more exciting
8. the widest

C. Create Your Own Sentences - Answers may vary. Here are example answers

1. Book A is cheaper than Book B.
2. Shoes are more comfortable than sandals.
3. Store A has a wider variety of products than Store B.

D. Fill in the gaps with the correct pronouns

1. Sarah went shopping because she needed a new dress. Her favorite store was having a sale, so she decided to check it out. At the store, she saw a beautiful dress that she really liked. However, she wasn't sure if it would fit. The salesperson helped her find the right size and she tried it on. It looked perfect on her, and she decided to buy it. After paying for the dress, she thanked the salesperson and left the store feeling very happy.