

YOUR TEACHER SAYS

1. You will read a sentence to your students and follow it up by saying: ... and your teacher says, it's true/false.
Example: Cats are better pets than dogs... and your teacher says, it's true.
2. Give your students a moment to think about this and they must then agree or disagree with you, and tell you briefly why.
3. Make some sentences true and some false. Have fun!
4. Depending on the size of your class, you can allow multiple students to answer/debate your statement.

1. Girls should pay more than boys because they are prettier.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
2. Women should earn more than men because they have to pay more for goods than men.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
3. A woman must not take her car to a mechanic. She should always ask a man to do it on her behalf.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
4. Toys for boys should be cheaper because girls also play with the same toys.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
5. Girls should not pay more for a haircut even though the hairdresser needs more training to cut women's hair.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
6. If women don't want to pay more for deodorant, they can use men's deodorant.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
7. Dry cleaning for men should cost more than for women because men's clothes are often dirtier than women's clothes.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
