

TRAVEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

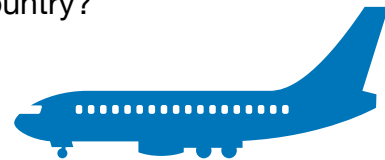

Listen to the announcements your teacher reads to you and decide if they are for passenger trains, airplanes, or cruise ships.

Trains	Airplanes	Cruise ships

Fill the gaps with the W words.

What Where When Why Who

- _____ is the most interesting city in your country?
- _____ is this city so interesting?
- _____ did you go to that city?
- _____ do you like to travel with?
- _____ should tourists go when they visit your country?
- _____ is the best time to visit your country?
- _____ is (that time) the best time to visit your country?
- _____ do you prefer to travel by? Car, train, or plane?
- _____ do you sometimes speak another language?
- _____ do you not like to travel with?
- _____ do you do to prepare for a holiday?
- _____ are you planning to go on your next vacation?

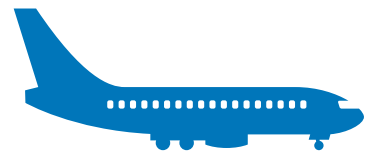

Travel Announcements

Passenger Trains

1. Attention, passengers: this is your conductor speaking.
2. Now boarding on platform 5...
3. This is a platform announcement for passengers for the 12.20 service to Brighton.

Cruise Ships

1. All passengers of deck no. 2 are requested to follow the crew members who will escort you to your assembly stations.
2. We will be docking in Cape Town in 30 minutes.
3. Take your lifejackets and blankets with you...

Flights

1. We are expecting a little turbulence.
 2. The time at our destination is 6:34.
 3. Passengers are reminded to keep their luggage with them at all times.
 4. Ladies and gentlemen, this is your captain speaking.
- This is the final boarding call for passengers Micka and Camilo Morales booked on...