

QUICK-FIRE QUESTIONS

Your teacher will ask the questions below in any order, you have 5 sec. to answer (or 6 sec. if he/she's very kind).

If you don't answer within this timeframe, your teacher will move on to the next person

OR

Ask these questions in any order to some classmates around you.

1. Fast food you spend the most money on?
2. Your secret "guilty pleasures" you spend money on?
3. Next electronic gadget you want to spend money on?
4. Online purchases you spend the most money on?
5. If you could spend money on plastic surgery, what would it be? (facelift, etc.)
6. Grocery items you spend the most money on?
7. Grocery items you would love to spend more money on?
8. If you could buy a new car, what would it be?
9. Clothing item you spent too much on?
10. A household gadget you bought and never used?

Fill the gaps with "what, where, when, who, why, or how".

Ask and Answer these questions.

1. If you could invent a new flavor of ice cream, what would it be and _____ would you call it?
2. If you could have any historical figure as a classmate, _____ would you choose? Why?
3. In a world _____ animals could talk, what would be the most annoying place to visit?
4. If you could travel back in time and give your younger self one piece of advice, _____ would it be?
5. _____ would you convince a fussy [picky] eater to try a new food?
6. What time of day would be the weirdest to eat breakfast food?
7. _____ many marshmallows would it take to fill your classroom?
8. How would you explain the internet to someone who has never seen technology?
9. If you could create a new emoji, what would it represent and how would you use it?
10. If animals could build their own cities, _____ would be the weirdest or most interesting jobs in an ant city?

Teacher's Key

Fill the gaps with the “Wh” question words

1. If you could invent a new flavor of ice cream, what would it be and what would you call it?
2. If you could have any historical figure as a classmate, who would you choose? Why?
3. In a world where animals could talk, what would be the most annoying place to visit?
4. If you could travel back in time and give your younger self one piece of advice, what would it be?
5. How would you convince a picky eater to try a new food?
6. What time of day would be the weirdest to eat breakfast food?
7. How many marshmallows would it take to fill your classroom?
8. How would you explain the internet to someone who has never seen technology?
9. If you could create a new emoji, what would it represent and how would you use it?
10. If animals could build their own cities, what would be the weirdest or most interesting jobs in an ant city?