QUESTIONS

Who in your family asks the most questions? Write sentences about who asks what type of questions and when they usually ask these questions.

Think of questions your family asks you that you like and dislike. Why do you like or dislike these questions?

You can also write sentences about your friends and questions they ask you that you like and dislike, and tell us why. What questions do your grandma or grandpa usually ask you? Do any of your teachers ask you questions you don't like? Or like?
