

ADVICE - GIVE AND RECEIVE

Student A

1. If you can go back to school/university, what advice will you give yourself?
2. What advice do you wish someone had given you when you were younger?
3. What are some situations where you would seek advice from others?
4. Who do you usually go to for advice, and why?
5. What makes good advice, in your opinion?
6. Have you ever received bad advice? What was it, and what did you do?
7. Do you think it's better to ask for advice or try to figure things out on your own?
8. How do you decide whether to follow someone's advice or not?
9. Can you think of a time when you gave advice to someone else? What was it about?
10. Do you think advice from older people is always better than advice from younger people?
11. Are there any topics where you wouldn't want to receive advice from others?
12. Can you think of a cultural difference related to giving or receiving advice?
13. What advice would you give people about going for cosmetic surgery?

Student B

1. What advice have you received that you are sorry that you didn't follow?
2. What three pieces of advice will you give your children?
3. What advice would you give yourself right now?
4. Have you ever given advice that you later regretted? What was it?
5. How do you feel when someone rejects your advice?
6. Can you think of a situation where you didn't ask for advice but wish you had?
7. Do you think men and women give different types of advice? Why or why not?
8. How do you handle conflicting advice from different people?
9. Are there any self-help books or articles that you've found particularly helpful?
10. Do you think advice from experts is always better than advice from non-experts?
11. Can you think of a time when you received unsolicited advice? How did you handle it?
12. Are there any situations where you think it's better to keep your advice to yourself?
13. What advice would you give the leader of your country?

