

NEWS

Student A

1. How often do you watch or read the news? Where do you usually get your news from?
2. What kind of news stories do you find the most interesting? Why?
3. Have you ever shared a news story with your friends or family? What was it about?
4. Is it important for everyone to follow the news? Why or why not?
5. How do you think the news has changed over the past decade? In what ways?
6. What is the most recent news story you remember hearing about? Can you describe it?
7. How do you feel when you hear bad news? What do you do to feel better?
8. Do you think the news can sometimes be misleading or exaggerated? Give an example.
9. Do you avoid any news topics because they make you feel uncomfortable or sad?
10. If you could interview a news reporter, what questions would you ask them?

Student B

1. How important is it to know about news events happening in other countries? Why?
2. What do you think are the responsibilities of journalists when reporting the news?
3. How do you think social media has changed the way people get their news? Is this positive or negative?
4. Have you ever been surprised by a news story? What was it about?
5. What sources do you trust the most for accurate news information? Why?
6. How do you think the news influences public opinion and attitudes?
7. In your opinion, what qualities make a news story interesting and engaging?
8. How do you think technology will change the way news is delivered in the future?
9. Do you think it's important for schools to teach students about how to interpret and analyze the news? Why or why not?
10. If you were a news editor, what kind of stories would you prioritize covering?

The News