

BEHIND THAT DOOR

Forming comparatives and superlatives

Complete the following sentences with the correct form of the adjective in parentheses:

1. This door is _____ (big) than the one in my room.
2. The front door is _____ (old) than the back door.
3. This hotel room door is _____ (heavy) than the one in my house.
4. The door to the gym is _____ (wide) than the door to the library.
5. This door handle is _____ (easy) to turn than the one on the other door.
6. The door to the manager's office is _____ (hard) to open than the door to the employee lounge.
7. This door is _____ (beautiful) than the one we saw yesterday.
8. The door to the emergency exit is _____ (important) than the door to the supply closet.

Error identification

Identify the error in the following sentences:

1. This door is more darker than the one we saw yesterday.
2. The front door is older than the back door, but it looks more newer.
3. The door to the gym is more wider than the door to the library.
4. The door handle is easiest to turn than the one on the other door.
5. The door to the emergency exit is more important than the door to the supply closet.
6. This door is more difficult to open than the one we used tomorrow.
7. The door to the CEO's office is more impressive than the door to the manager's office.
8. The door to the garden is more beautiful than the door to the garage, but it's difficult to open.

Comparative and superlative exercises

Complete the following exercises:

1. Write three comparative sentences using the adjectives big, heavy, and old, related to doors.

---

---

2. Write three superlative sentences using the adjectives beautiful, secure, impressive, related to doors.

---

---

Teacher's Key

Forming comparatives and superlatives

Complete the following sentences with the correct form of the adjective in parentheses:

1. This door is bigger than the one in my room.
2. The front door is older than the back door.
3. This hotel room door is heavier than the one in my house.
4. The door to the gym is wider than the door to the library.
5. This door handle is easier to turn than the one on the other door.
6. The door to the manager's office is harder to open than the door to the employee lounge.
7. This door is more beautiful than the one we saw yesterday.
8. The door to the emergency exit is more important than the door to the supply closet.

Error identification

Identify the error in the following sentences:

1. This door is darker than the one we saw yesterday.
2. The front door is older than the back door, but it looks newer.
3. The door to the gym is wider than the door to the library.
4. The door handle is easier to turn than the one on the other door.
5. The door to the emergency exit is more important than the door to the supply closet.
[correct]
6. This door is more difficult to open than the one we used yesterday.
7. The door to the CEO's office is more impressive than the door to the manager's office.
[correct]
8. The door to the garden is more beautiful than the door to the garage, but it's more difficult to open.

Comparative and superlative exercises

1. Comparative sentences (Answers will vary, but here are some examples)
  - This door is bigger than the one in my room.
  - The front door is heavier than the back door.
  - The door to the attic is older than the door to the basement.
2. Superlative sentences:
  - This is the most beautiful door I've ever seen.
  - The bank vault has the most secure door I've ever seen.
  - The CEO's office has the most impressive door I've ever seen.