

BEHIND THAT DOOR

Fill the Gaps with Wh- Words

Complete each sentence with an appropriate Wh- word (who, what, where, when, why, how).

1. _____ invented the automatic door?
2. _____ do you think doors are important in architecture?
3. _____ can we buy a new door for the kitchen?
4. _____ does the doorbell ring every morning?
5. _____ are there so many different types of doors?
6. _____ is the best material for making doors?
7. _____ do you call a door that slides instead of swinging?
8. _____ did they start using glass for doors?
9. _____ often do you need to maintain or repair doors?
10. _____ can we make a door more energy-efficient?

Fill the Gaps with the Correct Pronoun

Fill in the blanks with the correct pronoun (he, she, it, they, them, her, him, their, its).

The Haunted Door

Once upon a time, there was an old house with a mysterious door. Nobody knew where _____ (1) led, and many people were afraid to open _____ (2). One day, a brave girl named Alice decided to investigate. _____ (3) told _____ (4) friends about her plan, but _____ (5) were too scared to join _____ (6). Alice took _____ (7) flashlight and approached the door. As _____ (8) got closer, _____ (9) noticed a strange symbol on _____ (10) surface. _____ (11) heart raced as _____ (12) reached for the doorknob. Suddenly, the door creaked open on _____ (13) own. Alice took a deep breath and stepped inside. To _____ (14) surprise, _____ (15) found a beautiful garden. The garden seemed to welcome _____ (16), and _____ (17) realized that the door was not haunted at all, but a gateway to a magical place. Alice and _____ (18) friends often visited the garden, and _____ (19) became _____ (20) favorite secret spot.

Teacher's Key

Fill the Gaps with Wh- Words

Complete each sentence with an appropriate Wh- word (who, what, where, when, why, how).

1. Who invented the automatic door?
2. Why do you think doors are important in architecture?
3. Where can we buy a new door for the kitchen?
4. Why does the doorbell ring every morning?
5. Why are there so many different types of doors?
6. What is the best material for making doors?
7. What do you call a door that slides instead of swinging?
8. When did they start using glass for doors?
9. How often do you need to maintain or repair doors?
10. How can we make a door more energy-efficient?

Fill the Gaps with the Correct Pronoun

Fill in the blanks with the correct pronoun (he, she, it, they, them, her, him, their, its).

The Haunted Door

Once upon a time, there was an old house with a mysterious door. Nobody knew where it (1) led, and many people were afraid to open it (2). One day, a brave girl named Alice decided to investigate. She (3) told her (4) friends about her plan, but they (5) were too scared to join her (6). Alice took her (7) flashlight and approached the door. As she (8) got closer, she (9) noticed a strange symbol on its (10) surface. Her (11) heart raced as she (12) reached for the doorknob. Suddenly, the door creaked open on its (13) own. Alice took a deep breath and stepped inside. To her (14) surprise, she (15) found a beautiful garden. The garden seemed to welcome her (16), and she (17) realized that the door was not haunted at all, but a gateway to a magical place. Alice and her (18) friends often visited the garden, and it (19) became their (20) favorite secret spot.