

YOUR TEACHER SAYS

1. You will read a sentence to your students and follow it up by saying: ... and your teacher says, it's true/false.
Example: Cats are better pets than dogs... and your teacher says, it's true.
2. Give your students a moment to think about this and they must then agree or disagree with you, and tell you briefly why.
3. Make some sentences true and some false. Have fun!
4. Depending on the size of your class, you can allow multiple students to answer/ debate your statement.

1. Watching the evening news on TV is boring.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
2. Many people are only interested in sports news.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
3. Women don't like to read newspapers.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
4. 7.00 pm is a good time to watch the news on TV.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
5. Reading a newspaper is a good way to study English.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
6. There are too many stories about violence in newspapers.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
7. It's better to read the newspaper before school/work.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
8. The good news is that we are going to have nice weather tomorrow.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
9. Most people just read news headlines on their mobile phones.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
10. I have more good news for you: people are going to live longer than 100 years in the future.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
11. You should read more news articles. It's good to know what's happening around the world.
And your teacher says it's false/true.
12. People who read a lot have more knowledge than those who don't read anything.
And your teacher says it's false/true.

