

BEHIND THAT DOOR

Can you name 3...?

1. ... doors that are useful to you. (Example: places that you often go to.)
2. ... doors that you don't like to enter. (Example: dentist's room, etc.)
3. ... doors that lead to exciting places? (Example: movie theater door, etc.)
4. ... types of doors in a house? (Example: back door, etc.)
5. ... famous doors in history? (Example: The Gates of the Forbidden City, etc.)
6. ... doors to religious houses that we can enter. ((Example: church, etc.)
7. ... unique or unusual doors? (Example: A submarine hatch, etc.)
8. ... places/things you can enter that don't have doors. (Example: swimming pool, etc.)
9. ... things we find on a door. (Example: hinge, etc.)
10. ... doors that you would like to enter but can't. (Example: space station, etc.)
11. ... festivals when people decorate their doors. (Example: Christmas, etc.)
12. ... last doors you entered. (Example: classroom door, etc.)

=====

Fill the Gaps

Doorknob	Trapdoor	Entrance	Doorbell	Garage door
Peephole	Sliding door	Locksmith	Cat flap	Keyhole

1. When I visit my friend I ring the _____ to let him know I have arrived.
2. I turn the _____ when I want to open the door.
3. There is a sign to show us towards the _____.
4. Most doors in the city have a _____ so that we can see who is at the door.
5. I need a handyman to come and install a _____ in my backdoor for my cat to get in and out.
6. My mother lost the house keys, so she had to call a _____ to come and open the door.
7. The plumber had to climb through the _____ to work on the water heater in the roof.
8. We are replacing our old front door with a nice big _____ so that we can get more light into the room.
9. My grandpa always struggles to get the key into the _____ at night.
10. My father has a remote control in the car that can open the _____ when we get home.

Teacher's Key

Can you name 3...?

3. ... doors that lead to exciting places?

Amusement park entrance, Airport gate, Movie theater door,
Concert venue entrance, Sports stadium gate, Cruise ship gangway, etc.

4. ... types of doors in a house?

Front door, Back door, Bedroom door, Bathroom door, Kitchen door, Attic door, etc.

5. ... famous doors in history?

The Doors of the Roman Colosseum, The Gates of Buckingham Palace,
The Entrance to the Great Pyramid, The Gates of the Forbidden City,
The Entrance to the Taj Mahal, The Doors of the Ancient City of Petra, etc.

7. ... unique or unusual doors?

A submarine hatch, A space station airlock, A secret passage door, etc.

Fill the Gaps

1. When I visit my friend I ring the doorbell to let him know I have arrived.
2. I turn the doorknob when I want to open the door.
3. There is a sign to show us towards the entrance.
4. Most doors in the city have a peephole so that we can see who is at the door.
5. I need a handyman to come and install a cat flap in my backdoor for my cat to get in and out.
6. My mother lost the house keys, so she had to call a locksmith to come and open the door.
7. The plumber had to climb through the trapdoor to work on the water heater in the roof.
8. We are replacing our old front door with a nice big sliding door so that we can get more light into the room.
9. My grandpa always struggles to get the key into the keyhole at night.
10. My father has a remote control in the car that can open the garage door when we get home.