

OLYMPIC GAMES

Present, Past, and Future Tenses

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. The Olympic Games _____ (be) an international event.
2. Athletes _____ (compete) in various sports.
3. The next Olympics _____ (take) place in 2028.
4. She _____ (win) a gold medal last year.
5. We _____ (watch) the opening ceremony yesterday.
6. He _____ (train) every day for the Olympics.
7. They _____ (host) the Olympics in Tokyo in 2021.
8. I _____ (see) the gymnastics competition tomorrow.
9. The team _____ (prepare) for the relay race now.
10. She _____ (break) the world record last night.
11. The city _____ (build) new facilities for the games.
12. We _____ (cheer) for our country's athletes next week.

Fill in the Blanks with Pronouns

Fill in the blanks with the correct pronouns (he, she, it, they, we, you, I).

John and Maria are very excited because _____ are going to the Olympic Games with their family. _____ have been looking forward to this trip for a long time. John's sister, Anna, is an athlete. _____ is going to compete in the swimming events. John and Maria's parents are also excited. _____ will be cheering for Anna.

When the family arrives at the stadium, _____ can see the big Olympic rings. The stadium is huge, and _____ is full of people. John and Maria find their seats and sit down. _____ are in the front row, so _____ can see everything clearly.

The opening ceremony starts, and _____ is amazing. The performers are talented, and _____ make the show very exciting. Anna walks into the stadium with the other athletes. _____ is wearing _____ team's uniform and waving to the crowd. John and Maria wave back, hoping _____ can see them.

During the swimming competition, John and Maria watch Anna closely. _____ swims very fast. When the race is over, _____ wins a silver medal. The family is so proud of Anna. _____ all celebrate together.

After the event, John and Maria take many pictures. _____ want to remember this special day forever. _____ will always be a fantastic memory for them.

Teacher's Key

1. are
2. compete
3. will take
4. won
5. watched
6. trains
7. hosted
8. will see
9. is preparing
10. broke
11. is building
12. will cheer

Fill in the Blanks with Pronouns

John and Maria are very excited because they are going to the Olympic Games with their family. They have been looking forward to this trip for a long time. John's sister, Anna, is an athlete. She is going to compete in the swimming events. John and Maria's parents are also excited. They will be cheering for Anna.

When the family arrives at the stadium, they can see the big Olympic rings. The stadium is huge, and it is full of people. John and Maria find their seats and sit down. They are in the front row, so they can see everything clearly.

The opening ceremony starts, and it is amazing. The performers are talented, and they make the show very exciting. Anna walks into the stadium with the other athletes. She is wearing her team's uniform and waving to the crowd. John and Maria wave back, hoping she can see them.

During the swimming competition, John and Maria watch Anna closely. She swims very fast. When the race is over, she wins a silver medal. The family is so proud of Anna. They all celebrate together.

After the event, John and Maria take many pictures. They want to remember this special day forever. It will always be a fantastic memory for them.