

ARTISTS & ART

Fill the Gaps with the Correct Pronoun

Complete the sentences with the correct pronoun (he, she, it, they, his, her, their, them).

1. Leonardo da Vinci was an Italian artist. _____ is famous for painting the Mona Lisa.
2. Vincent van Gogh painted Starry Night. _____ life was full of struggles, but _____ works are now celebrated.
3. Frida Kahlo is known for _____ self-portraits. _____ often depicted _____ own experiences and emotions.
4. Pablo Picasso and Georges Braque developed Cubism. _____ revolutionary ideas changed the course of modern art.
5. Claude Monet's paintings of water lilies are admired worldwide. _____ impressionistic style captures light beautifully.
6. Salvador Dalí was a surrealist painter. _____ works are known for _____ bizarre and dream-like qualities.
7. Andy Warhol's pop art became iconic. _____ use of everyday objects in _____ art challenged traditional ideas.
8. Georgia O'Keeffe's flower paintings are renowned for _____ vivid colors and attention to detail.
9. Michelangelo was a sculptor and painter. _____ works include the Sistine Chapel ceiling.
10. Jackson Pollock's abstract expressionist paintings are famous for _____ unique technique of drip painting.

Read the following sentences and identify the grammar errors:

1. Leonardo da Vinci was a artist and inventor.

2. The Mona Lisa are one of the most famous paintings in the world.

3. Vincent van Gogh paint many beautiful landscapes.

4. The sculpture was create by Michelangelo. _____
5. Frida Kahlo was know for her self-portraits. _____

Teacher's Key

1. Leonardo da Vinci was an Italian artist. He is famous for painting the Mona Lisa.
2. Vincent van Gogh painted Starry Night. His life was full of struggles, but his works are now celebrated.
3. Frida Kahlo is known for her self-portraits. She often depicted her own experiences and emotions.
4. Pablo Picasso and Georges Braque developed Cubism. Their revolutionary ideas changed the course of modern art.
5. Claude Monet's paintings of water lilies are admired worldwide. His impressionistic style captures light beautifully.
6. Salvador Dalí was a surrealist painter. His works are known for their bizarre and dream-like qualities.
7. Andy Warhol's pop art became iconic. His use of everyday objects in his art challenged traditional ideas.
8. Georgia O'Keeffe's flower paintings are renowned for their vivid colors and attention to detail.
9. Michelangelo was a sculptor and painter. His works include the Sistine Chapel ceiling.
10. Jackson Pollock's abstract expressionist paintings are famous for their unique technique of drip painting.

Identify the grammar errors:

1. Leonardo da Vinci was a artist and inventor.
"a" should be "an" (indefinite article)
2. The Mona Lisa are one of the most famous paintings in the world.
"are" should be "is" (subject-verb agreement)
3. Vincent van Gogh paint many beautiful landscapes.
"paint" should be "painted" (verb tense)
4. The sculpture was create by Michelangelo.
"was create" should be "was created" (passive voice)
5. Frida Kahlo was know for her self-portraits.
"was know" should be "was known" (verb tense)