

CINEMA & MOVIES

Present Simple

1. I _____ (go) to the cinema every Friday.
2. My favorite actor _____ (star) in many movies.
3. The movie _____ (start) at 8pm.
4. She _____ (not like) horror movies.
5. They _____ (make) a new film every year.
6. The cinema _____ (show) the latest blockbuster.
7. He _____ (not understand) the plot.
8. We _____ (love) watching movies together.

Present Continuous

1. I _____ (watch) a movie right now.
2. They _____ (film) a new scene today.
3. She _____ (not enjoy) the movie.
4. We _____ (discuss) the plot.
5. He _____ (direct) his first film.
6. The actors _____ (rehearse) their lines.
7. The movie _____ (not impress) me.
8. The special effects team _____ (work) on the finale.

Past Simple

1. I _____ (see) that movie last week.
2. They _____ (make) a great film last year.
3. She _____ (not like) the ending.
4. We _____ (go) to the cinema yesterday.
5. He _____ (star) in a movie when he was young.
6. The movie _____ (win) an award.
7. The actors _____ (perform) well.
8. The director _____ (not happy) with the result.

Future Simple

1. I _____ (see) the new movie next week.
2. They _____ (release) a new film soon.
3. She _____ (not attend) the premiere.
4. We _____ (make) a movie together someday.
5. He _____ (direct) a blockbuster next year.
6. The cinema _____ (show) the latest film.
7. The actors _____ (perform) in a new play.
8. The movie _____ (be) a huge success.

Conditional

1. If I _____ (have) time, I would go to the cinema.
2. They _____ (make) a great film if they had a bigger budget.
3. She _____ (not like) the movie if it were a horror.
4. We _____ (go) to the cinema if it were cheaper.
5. He _____ (be) a famous actor if he had taken that role.
6. The movie _____ (be) better if the plot were more interesting.
7. The actors _____ (perform) better if they had more rehearsal time.
8. The director _____ (be) happier if the film were a success.

Teacher's Key

Present Simple

1. I go (go) to the cinema every Friday.
2. My favorite actor stars (star) in many movies.
3. The movie starts (start) at 8pm.
4. She doesn't like (not like) horror movies.
5. They make (make) a new film every year.
6. The cinema shows (show) the latest blockbuster.
7. He doesn't understand (not understand) the plot.
8. We love (love) watching movies together.

Present Continuous

1. I am watching (watch) a movie right now.
2. They are filming (film) a new scene today.
3. She is not enjoying (not enjoy) the movie.
4. We are discussing (discuss) the plot.
5. He is directing (direct) his first film.
6. The actors are rehearsing (rehearse) their lines.
7. The movie is not impressing (not impress) me.
8. The special effects team is working (work) on the finale.

Past Simple

1. I saw (see) that movie last week.
2. They made (make) a great film last year.
3. She didn't like (not like) the ending.
4. We went (go) to the cinema yesterday.
5. He starred (star) in a movie when he was young.
6. The movie won (win) an award.
7. The actors performed (perform) well.
8. The director was not happy (not happy) with the result.

Future Simple

1. I will see (see) the new movie next week.
2. They will release (release) a new film soon.
3. She won't attend (not attend) the premiere.
4. We will make (make) a movie together someday.
5. He will direct (direct) a blockbuster next year.
6. The cinema will show (show) the latest film.
7. The actors will perform (perform) in a new play.
8. The movie will be (be) a huge success.

Conditional

1. If I had (have) time, I would go to the cinema.
2. They would make (make) a great film if they had a bigger budget.
3. She wouldn't like (not like) the movie if it were a horror.
4. We would go (go) to the cinema if it were cheaper.
5. He would be (be) a famous actor if he had taken that role.
6. The movie would be (be) better if the plot were more interesting.
7. The actors would perform (perform) better if they had more rehearsal time.
8. The director would be (be) happier if the film were a success.