

DRESS CODE

Choose a word from the word bank and complete the sentences.

High heels	Briefcase	Lab coat	Overall	Hair net	Tie	Scarf
Business suit	Leather shoes	Plastic disposable gloves

What Am I?

1. I'm not very good-looking, but I can be expensive if I'm made from leather. If I am needed, people use me when they go to the office. You should remember a few numbers if you want to open me.
2. I'm mostly black or brown, comfortable, and look elegant with a suit.
3. I am white and have many tiny holes in me. I am used so that you don't find hair in your food.
4. I can be thin or wide and I often have diagonal stripes. I used to only be for men, but some women also wear me these days.
5. I'm a little old-fashioned but important, and most politicians and some businessmen wear me to work every day.
6. I am any color. I am expensive. I am uncomfortable. Many companies require women to wear me.
7. I am made from thin plastic and bad for the environment. When customers buy food, the staff use me to handle the food.
8. Many workers who work outside wear me to protect their clothes. I am often blue, but can be any color.
9. I am colorful and look pretty around someone's neck.
10. I am white and doctors, nurses, and laboratory workers wear me.

Teacher's Key

What Am I?

- | | |
|------------------------------|------------------|
| 1. Briefcase | 2. Leather shoes |
| 3. Hair net | 4. Tie |
| 5. Business suit | 6. High heels |
| 7. Plastic disposable gloves | 8. Overall |
| 9. Scarf | 10. Lab coat |

1. I'm not very good-looking, but I can be expensive if I'm made from leather. If I am needed, people use me when they go to the office. You should remember a few numbers if you want to open me.
2. I am mostly black or brown. I am comfortable and look elegant with a suit.
3. I am white and have many tiny holes in me. I am used so that you don't find hair in your food.
4. I can be thin or wide and I often have diagonal stripes. I used to only be for men, but some women also wear me these days.
5. I'm a little old-fashioned but important, and most politicians and some businessmen wear me to work every day.
6. I am any color. I am expensive. I am uncomfortable. Many companies require women to wear me.
7. I am made from thin plastic and bad for the environment. When customers buy food, the staff use me to handle the food.
8. Many workers who work outside wear me to protect their clothes. I am often blue, but can be any color.
9. I am colorful and look pretty around someone's neck.
10. I am white and doctors, nurses, and laboratory workers wear me.