

CRIME

Vocabulary List

- Arrested: taken into police custody
- Locked up: put in a cell or jail
- Arraignment: first court appearance
- Bail: money paid to release someone from jail
- Jail: a place where people are held before trial
- Trial: a court case where evidence is presented
- Prosecutor: lawyer who presents evidence against the accused
- Defense attorney: a lawyer who defends the accused
- Jury: a group of people who decide the verdict
- Guilty: found responsible for a crime
- Sentenced: given a punishment by a judge
- Prison: a place where people serve time for serious crimes

Use the words in the block to fill the gaps

prove judge around doorstep inmate evidence handcuffs court

Meet Alex, who made some bad choices and ended up in trouble with the law. One day, the police came to his _____ and arrested him for a crime he committed. They took him to the police station, where he was locked up in a cell.

Later, Alex was taken to _____ for his arraignment, where the _____ told him what he was charged with and set a bail amount. Since Alex couldn't pay the bail, he stayed in jail until his trial.

The prosecutor presented _____ against Alex at the trial, and his defense attorney tried to _____ his innocence. A jury of 12 people listened to the evidence and decided Alex's fate.

Unfortunately, the jury found Alex guilty, and the judge sentenced him to five years in prison. Alex was taken away in _____ to start serving his time.

Alex was given a uniform and a cell to share with another _____ in prison. He had to follow strict rules and do chores to earn privileges. Alex realized he had made a big mistake and vowed to turn his life _____ when he got out.

Comprehension Questions

1. Why was Alex taken to the police station?

2. What happened to Alex at his arraignment?

3. Who presented evidence against Alex at the trial?

4. What was the outcome of Alex's trial?

5. Where was Alex taken after being sentenced?

6. What did Alex have to do in prison to earn privileges?

7. How did Alex feel about his situation at the end of the story?

Teacher's Key

Use the words in the block to fill the gaps

Meet Alex, who made some bad choices and ended up in trouble with the law. One day, the police came to his doorstep and arrested him for a crime he committed. They took him to the police station, where he was locked up in a cell.

Later, Alex was taken to court for his arraignment, where the judge told him what he was charged with and set a bail amount. Since Alex couldn't pay the bail, he stayed in jail until his trial.

The prosecutor presented evidence against Alex at the trial, and his defense attorney tried to prove his innocence. A jury of 12 people listened to the evidence and decided Alex's fate.

Unfortunately, the jury found Alex guilty, and the judge sentenced him to five years in prison. Alex was taken away in handcuffs to start serving his time.

Alex was given a uniform and a cell to share with another inmate in prison. He had to follow strict rules and do chores to earn privileges. Alex realized he had made a big mistake and vowed to turn his life around when he got out.

Comprehension Questions

1. Why was Alex taken to the police station?

Alex was taken to the police station because he was arrested for a crime.

2. What happened to Alex at his arraignment?

At his arraignment, the judge told Alex what he was charged with and set a bail amount.

3. Who presented evidence against Alex at the trial?

The prosecutor presented evidence against Alex at the trial.

4. What was the outcome of Alex's trial?

Alex was found guilty at the trial.

5. Where was Alex taken after being sentenced?

Alex was taken to prison after being sentenced.

6. What did Alex have to do in prison to earn privileges?

Alex had to follow strict rules and do chores to earn privileges in prison.

7. How did Alex feel about his situation at the end of the story?

Alex realized he made a mistake and vowed to turn his life around when he got out.